

The determination of each Black American activist who led San Francisco's 504 Sit-In is a story worth sharing.

The Regions Riding Forward® Scholarship Essay Contest encourages retelling stories like those of the Black leaders and activists whose support of a monthlong sit-in pushed the disability rights movement forward. Because we know whether through individual impact or community effort, people making a change is what inspires us to tell stories worth sharing.

Tell us about a Black American individual who has inspired you for the opportunity to earn a $3,500 or $5,000 college scholarship. And by entering, you'll become part of a 10-year tradition that's awarded over $1 million in scholarships.
