FUN FACTS!

The Legacy Museum, one of Alabama's top two tourist attractions, displays the history of enslavement and racism in America.

The Double-A Montgomery Biscuits play at Riverfront Park. Famous Montgomery minor-league alums include Mark "The Bird" Fidrych, Earl Weaver and Casey Stengel, who played there in 1912.

Founded in 1819, the same year Alabama became a state, Montgomery became a major port city because of its access to the Alabama River.
