

Here are some helpful tips to resume the student loan payment process:

1

Go to the official government website (studentaid.gov). Once there, you can learn about the “Save Plan” and get instant help by chatting with a virtual assistant.

2

If you're having trouble making the payments, contact your loan servicer directly.

3

In addition, banks like Regions have resources to help you move forward with confidence. The Regions site also offers support available at Regions.com.
