FUN FACTS!

Chartered in 1856 as a male-only college, Auburn University now has an enrollment of 33,000-plus students.

In 1892, the school became the first coed public college in the state.

The town was founded in 1836 and drew its name from the first line of the Goldsmith poem.

It's not just the campus that's expanding. The city is the 19th-fastest growing metro area in the U.S.
