

MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE

METRO
POPULATION
1.3 MILLION

FUN FACTS!

Within the city limits is Shelby Farms Park, an urban oasis that's one of the nation's largest with 40 miles of trails, a greenway and a herd of buffalo.

The Big River Crossing takes hikers and runners a mile across the mighty Mississippi, providing heart-pumping cardio and an awe-inspiring view of downtown.

The ninth-tallest pyramid on earth is now one of the most famous storefronts in America, the Bass Pro Shops at the Pyramid. Originally built as a basketball and concert venue, it now hosts outdoors merchandise and a renowned hotel.

Downtown's Beale Street remains a top tourist destination and a must-visit, with an array of unique restaurants, music clubs and brew pubs.

