FUN FACTS!

During their criminal heyday, Bonnie and Clyde hid out at a hotel at the Stockyards, which is now considered a must-visit by ghost hunters and seekers of the paranormal.

By modern-day standards, Fort Worth is still a pre-teen. The town was founded in 1840 along the fertile banks of the Trinity River.

For the past 63 years, the city has hosted the annual Van Cliburn International Piano Competition, named after the native Fort Worth musician who won the inaugural international competition at the age of 23.
