

COLUMBIA, SOUTH CAROLINA

POPULATION
144,788

FUN FACTS!

Nearby Fort Jackson is the largest initial training center in the U.S. Army and has played a pivotal role in the nation's defense since World War I.

The nation's first textile mill run by electricity is now home to the South Carolina State Museum.

Just 20 miles from Columbia, you can find the tallest trees East of the Mississippi River at Congaree National Park.

